

POWERGUARD™

Double Containment Price List Polypropylene and PVDF

PolyStar™ Polypropylene Prices

Flo Safe offers a complete range of PowerGuard™ electrofusion double containment pipe and fittings in pressure and drainage patterns. This price list contains prices for all of our “standard” PowerGuard pipe, fittings and accessories. Dimensional information for these standard items can be found in our separate double containment dimensional catalog. In special cases where the standard dimensions need to be factory modified, Flo Safe can manufacture special factory fabrications or add extensions to fittings. Pricing for special factory modified fittings are shown below. In the fabrication price table below, a component can be either a double containment fitting or pipe section. A two component assembly includes one factory joint, a three component assembly involves two factory joints, etc. All factory joints (inner and outer) are pre-tested and inspected prior to packaging and shipping. Special packaging and shipping charges may apply. Details of how these modifications are made can be found on page 12 of this price list.

Note: One carrier coupling is included for every “upstream” outlet of Polypropylene fittings through nominal 4” size. Specifically, one is included with every elbow, two are included for a three sided branch fitting, and three with a four sided branch fitting. For reducing branch fittings, the size of the coupling included match the specific “upstream” branch sizes, only for those branches that are nominal 4” or less.

Pipe Lengths and Special Factory Fabrications

Factory Fitting Extension Detail

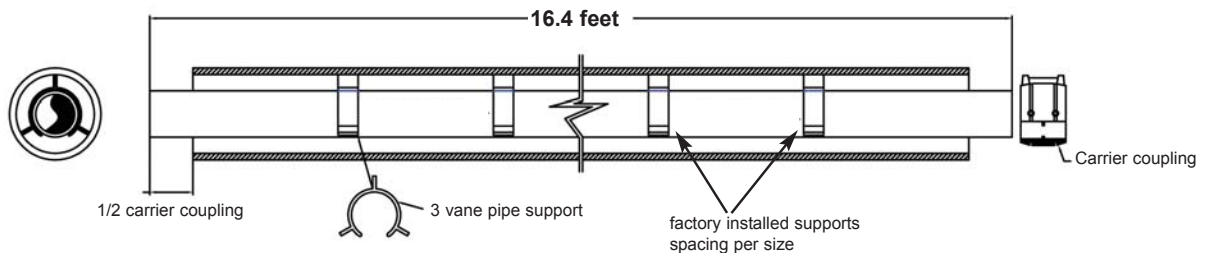

Note: Maximum Extension length is six feet
Pricing for extensions is listed on page 2 for Polypropylene and page 18 for PVDF.

PowerGuard™ Anchored Factory Pipe Length Detail

Note: PowerGuard internal anchors are factory joined to the carrier pipes. Containment pipes are factory pre-cut to leave enough carrier piping exposed beyond PowerGuard anchors for proper insertion into half of a carrier coupling on both sides. Three vane supports are tack welded into specified positions. Upon request, all parts may be shipped loose with un-cut pipes for field assembly-at no extra charge. One carrier coupling is included per 16.4 ft length in carrier sizes through 4" (PP only). Upon request, pull rope for leak detection cable can be pre-installed at the factory at an additional cost. Contact Flo Safe for cable pull rope pricing.

PowerGuard™ NON-Anchored Factory Pipe Length Detail

Note: Containment pipes are factory pre-cut to leave enough carrier piping exposed beyond containment pipe ends for proper insertion into half of a carrier coupling on both sides. Three vane supports are tack welded into specified positions. Upon request, all parts may be shipped loose with un-cut pipes for field assembly-at no extra charge. One carrier coupling is included per 16.4 ft length in carrier sizes through 4" (PP only). Upon request, pull rope for leak detection cable can be pre-installed at the factory at an additional cost. Contact Flo Safe for cable pull rope pricing.
